FEI Driving Courses for Level I & II
Judges and Technical Delegates
Schlosshof, Austria March 3 - 5, 2017

FEI Education 2017

FEI Courses for international Judges and Technical Delegates for Driving Sport 2017 in Austria. Within the framework of the International Equestrian Sport Congress - Horse in Sport 2017, education and refresher courses will be held from March 3 to 5, according to the new FEI training program.

The venue is unique - the Imperial Palace, Schlosshof -> LINK - in Austria, near the Hungarian and Slovakian border.

Mark Wentein from Belgium will be responsible for the training of the judges and Richard Nicoll from the USA will attend the Technical Delegates.

Mark Wentein is one of the most experienced FEI Judges in Driving Sport, he was an active athlete for the Belgian team and as FEI Official in the position of the FEI Judge (Level 4) at World Championships and top events worldwide - Mark is member of the FEI Driving Committee and also in the position of the Technical Delegate (Level 3) in FEI Driving Sport

Richard Nicoll has been involved in Driving Sport since the early 1970s. He is a respected Technical Delegate and Course Designer who has demonstrated his skills at several Driving World Championships, including the Alltech FEI World Equestrian Games™ in 2010. Richard was an FEI Executive Board Member until 2011 and served two terms as Chair of the FEI Driving Committee.

In addition to the theoretical and practical FEI Courses, the participants will be offered an extensive program, where, in addition to a lot of driving, the magnificent ambience of the imperial - awesome building of the baroque Schlosshof will inspire.

A Gala dinner on Saturday evening, interesting discussions, many other lectures, as well as presentations of historical tradition Studfarms of the Danube Monarchy... and much more, are part of the program, and are included in the total price of the FEI Courses.

Special offers of the congress hotel and shuttle services, from and to the international airports Vienna (VIE), Austria, and Bratislava (BTS), Slovakia, which are located centrally (30 minutes driving time) are offered.

Due to the limited number of participants, the organizing team is looking forward to rapid registrations and participation.
